A Man With One of Those Faces is the first book in Caimh McDonnell's Dublin Trilogy, which melds fast-paced action with a distinctly Irish acerbic wit. Praise for A Man With One of Those Faces: "One of the funniest crime books you could read." The Express "A brilliant comedic thriller." The Irish Post "It's just crying out to be made into a movie.

A stunning epic fantasy in the tradition of David Eddings, Janny Wurts and Robert Jordan. A thousand years ago the Acharites drove the Forbidden from their land. Now strange sightings along Achar's northern border foreshadow their return. the barbaric tribes of the Ravensbund are pouring south with tales of fearsome beings who feed on the terror of their prey. Winter has come early, and with it the promise of war. Axis, bastard son of the dead Princess Rivkah, is sent to the battlefield of Gorkefort with his elite Axe-Wielders. Once there, he must hand over command to his hated half-brother, Borneheld. But travelling north, Axis falls in love with Faraday - Borneheld's betrothed - and meets two priests who challenge the very essence of his beliefs. the Sentinels walk the land, the treeFriend has been found, and the people of the Plough, the Wing and the Horn must set aside their differences and unite under one leader against the evil rising in the North... 'Douglass has the breadth of vision necessary to create sweeping epics and the storyteller's gift that makes readers love her.' - Locus the Axis trilogy Book 1. A millennia-old prophecy was given when the Forbidden Ones were driven from Achar. And now, the Acharites witness its manifestation: Achar is under attack by an evil lord from the North, Gorgreal-his ice demons strike from the sky and kill hundreds of brave warriors in the blink of an eye. All Acharites believe the end is near. One young woman, Faraday, betrothed of Duke Borneheld, learns that all she has been told about her people's history is untrue. While fleeing to safety from the dangerous land, Faraday, rides with Axis, legendary leader of the Axe-Wielders-and hated half-brother of Borneheld-and a man Faraday secretly loves although it would be death to admit it. She embarks on a journey, which will change her life forever, in search of the true nature of her people. This grand and heroic story tells the tale of one woman's plight to learn the truth of her people and change their hearts and their minds forever. She fights against oppressive forces to share this reality and will not desist until everyone knows. . . . Jay Smith, a twenty something guy with a secret; he witnessed vampires killing his parents. After years of trying to forget that gruesome day; his past is about to catch up with him. Come on a joyride with Jay who's history is entwined with the creatures of the night, an ancient evil that he must protect, and keeping it all hidden from his sister. He may just possibly end up saving the world - if he lives long enough. One thing is for sure, you have never had a morning like he has.

Joshua, a young boy living on a farm with his parents, is paid a visit one stormy night by Moloch, claiming to be an archangel, who has a very important request, that Joshua accompanies him on a journey down to the deepest reaches of Hell. For Satan has discovered the Holy Grail and, given its potency, intends to use it against mankind and against God. So begins Joshua's mission to win back the Grail, journeying across the four diverse pits of the Underworld, where all manner of beasts and demons await, towards the Palace of Pandemonium. 'Hell' is the first of a trilogy, with 'Heaven' and 'Earth' to come...

A new entry in the frightfully fun series perfect for fans of Goosebumps. Ryan and Tyler are obsessed with zombies-each year, they tie for first place at their school's annual costume contest with their grosser than gross zombie costumes. When some seriously spooky looking
