of people all around the world to answer interview questions and tell stories. Fortune 500 companies (Amazon included) recommend using the STAR method to answer behavioral questions. Whether you're just starting your job search, already interviewing with a company, or looking for a different way to stand out - there are a dozen different ways you can incorporate the technique into your life. But it's not just about interviewing. Any time you present yourself verbally or in written format, doing it in a narrative/story format will open people's ears. So if any (or all) of these apply to you, then you can use STAR:

- Looking for a job
- Interview preparation for a full time or part time job
- Getting yourself noticed as a freelancer
- Finding consulting gigs
- Trying to get an internal transfer
- Writing a badass LinkedIn profile
- Making a great blog, portfolio or content to present yourself
- Networking

I've helped thousands of people in their job searches and hundreds of (small and large) companies find the right people for their teams. The STAR method has remained a consistent and useful technique throughout. In a day and age when we are all trying to be heard, it is more relevant today than ever before.
