Essentials of Marketing Research: Putting Research into Practice, an exciting new practical guide by Kenneth E. Clow and Karen E. James offers a hands-on, applied approach to developing the fundamental data analysis skills necessary for making better management decisions using marketing research results. Each chapter opens by describing an actual research study related to the chapter content, with rich examples of contemporary research practices skillfully drawn from interviews with marketing research professionals and published practitioner studies. Clow and James explore the latest research techniques, including social media and other online methodologies, and they examine current statistical methods of analyzing data. With emphasis on how to interpret marketing research results and how to use those findings to make effective management decisions, the authors offer a unique learning-by-doing approach to understanding data analysis, interpreting data, and applying results to decision-making.

If you are a business owner, entrepreneur, or marketing manager, and you want to learn how to build a leak-proof marketing machine that hums along with minimal maintenance and optimal results... you really should read this book. Postcard Marketing In An Online World was the trusted guidebook of up-and-coming direct mail marketers when it was released, because the author, Joy Gendusa, was the entrepreneur that brought postcard marketing to the masses by cutting out the middle men (ad agencies), and making it affordable for businesses of all sizes. Now in its third printing, Postcard
