A timeless American classic and one of the most beloved children's books ever written, Old Yeller is a Newbery Honor Book that explores the poignant and unforgettable bond between a boy and the stray dog who becomes his loyal friend. When his father sets out on a cattle drive toward Kansas for the summer, fourteen-year-old Travis Coates is left to take care of his family and their farm. Living in Texas Hill Country during the 1860s, Travis comes to face new, unanticipated, and often perilous responsibilities in the frontier wilderness. A particular nuisance is a stray yellow dog that shows up one day and steals food from the family. But the big canine who Travis calls "Old Yeller" proves his worth by defending the family from danger. And Travis ultimately finds help and comfort in the courage and unwavering love of the dog who comes to be his very best friend. Fred Gipson's novel is an eloquently simple story that is both exciting and deeply moving. It stands alongside works like The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, Where the Red Fern Grows, and Shiloh as a beloved and enduring classic of literature. Originally published in 1956 to instant acclaim, Old Yeller later inspired a hit film from Walt Disney. Just as Old Yeller inevitably makes his way into the Coates family's hearts, this book will find its own special place in readers' hearts.

Discover the power behind the friendship of a boy and his dog. The easy-to-use format allows for lots of variety in activities to go along with the book. Enter the mind of Travis as he explains his feelings after shooting the deer. Identify statements about the novel as true or false. Describe how Travis' attitudes change towards certain characters from the story. Predict what will become of Old Yeller based on events from previous chapters. Conduct a study on women settlers and describe how you would feel if put in their position. Categorize the different dangers Travis faces throughout the novel on a graphic organizer. Aligned to your State Standards, additional crossword, word search, comprehension quiz and answer key are also included. About the Novel: Old Yeller tells the story of a boy, his dog, and the events that lead to their unlikely friendship. Travis Coates has no need for a dog, regardless of what his father tells him. Instead, he wants a horse. Travis' father promises to bring one home for him if he is able to step up and take care of the farm while his father is away. The 14-year-old takes this newfound responsibility to heart and sets out to prove that he deserves the title of "man of the house". A short time after Travis' father leaves the farm, a stray dog wanders onto their property. The Coates family name him "Old Yeller" in part because of his filthy yellow fur. Travis wants no part of this nuisance dog. He comes to change his mind when Old Yeller saves Travis' younger brother from a bear. From then on, Travis and Old Yeller become inseparable, leading to Old Yeller helping Travis keep up his duties on the farm. The story progresses in this manner until one task threatens the health of them both.

What is it exactly that ripples through the human core when trying to balance oneself on the edge of something: a skyscraper's ledge, a mile-high cliff, a shaking bridge, or, less tangibly, the edge of reason, sanity, anticipation, hope, or even death? What is it that keeps us from slipping and plunging headfirst into the unfamiliar abyss below? What happens to those who lose their balance? Are they aware of time and space as they near the bottom? Do they unconsciously gauge this journey with precision? Or do they close their eyes and wait for the inevitable? And what if there is no bottom...? This spectacular collection of short fiction by Writers on the Edge exposes the mysterious and often unexpected facets of life's surreal moments, introducing the reader to characters who teeter precariously on the edge of an extraordinary world; the edge of an untamed mind; the edge of what we perceive to be reality: I Don't Like Tuna Fish: A dedicated teacher inadvertently discovers how astute her young students can become when given the opportunity... May the Angels be with You Always: A psychic telephone operator gets more than she bargains for while interpreting the Tarot for a desperate old woman... Sometimes a Cigar...: A well-known psychiatrist takes a bus trip with some extremely colorful passengers... Diablo: A young girl takes a remarkable journey to another world in order to learn the truth about herself... As We Know It: A young woman believes she has the sole power to heal the earth's people as the world nears its end... The Coming: An expectant mother awaits in wonder for the latent arrival of...what? The Taste of Blood in My Mouth: A character in Ayn Rand's, "Atlas Shrugged" tries to escape from the maze of allegory...

A New York Times bestseller: "Udall masterfully portrays the hapless foibles and tragic yearnings of our fellow humans." –San Francisco Chronicle Golden Richards, husband to four wives, father to twenty-eight children, is having the mother of all midlife crises. His construction business is failing, his family has grown into an overpopulated mini-dukedom beset with insurrection and rivalry, and he is done in with grief: due to the accidental death of a daughter and the stillbirth of a son, he has come to doubt the capacity of his own heart. Brady Udall, one of our finest American fiction writers, tells a tragicomic story of a deeply faithful man who, crippled by grief and the demands of work and family, becomes entangled in an affair that threatens to destroy his family's future. Like John Irving and Richard Yates, Udall creates characters that engage us to the fullest as they grapple with the nature of need, love, and belonging. Beautifully written, keenly observed, and ultimately redemptive, The Lonely Polygamist is an unforgettable story of an American family—with its inevitable dysfunctionality, heartbreak, and comedy—pushed to its outer limits.
