A chance look at an old painting sends young Travis McKinnon on an epic adventure that will change him forever—if he survives. But it isn't just his life that hangs in the balance. The fate of several young women also rests on his shoulders. Travis quickly finds himself in a foreign land and time, unable to speak the language, facing terrible odds against a gang of ruthless gunmen, harsh elements, an arduous journey on a horse named Damn You, a deadly sleeping companion, and his own inexperience and lack of confidence in himself as he races the clock to try to keep a promise to a beautiful woman he'd just met. Each of these challenges would be extremely difficult for Travis, but together they appear to be impossible. Travis soon learns he's in way over his head and hasn't learned to swim in such
