Jeremy Clarkson gets under the bonnet in Clarkson on Cars - a collection of his motoring journalism.

Jeremy Clarkson has been driving cars, writing about them and occasionally voicing his opinions on the BBC's Top Gear for twenty years. No one in the business is taller. In this collection of classic Clarkson, stretching back to the mid-1980s, he's pulled together the car columns and stories with which he made his name. As coal mines closed and house prices exploded to a soundtrack of men in make-up playing synthesizers, Jeremy

File Type PDF

Toyota Hilux

was already waxing
lyrical on topics as useful and diverse as:

* The perils of bicycle ownership * Why
Australians - not Brits
- need bull bars * Why
soon only geriatrics
will be driving BMWs *
The difficulty of deciding on the best
car for your wedding *
Why Jesus's dad

why it is that bus

jams Irreverent, damn

funny and offensive to almost everyone, this

lines cut and the speed limit smashed

to smithereens. Sit back and enjoy the ride. Praise for

When the war ended on August 15, 1945, I was a naval engineering cadet at

the Kure Navy Yard
near Hiroshima,
Japan. A week later, I was demobilized and
returned to my home
in Tokyo, fortunate
not to find it ravaged by firebombing. At the beginning of September, a large contingent of the American occupation

forces led by General

Douglas MacArthur

moved its base from

Yokohama to Tokyo.

Near my home I

watched a procession

of American mili tary

motor vehicles

snaking along

Highway 1. This truly

awe-inspiring

cavalcade included

jeeps, two-and-a-half-

ton trucks, and

enormous trailers

mounted with tanks
and artillery. At the time, I was a 21-year-

old student in the

Machinery Section of Engineering at the

Tokyo Imperial

University. Watching

that magnificent

parade of military

vehicles, I was more than impressed by the

gap in industrial

Strength between

Japan and the U. S.

That realization led

me to devote my

whole life to the development of the industry. I wrote a small article

concerning this

incident in Nikkei

Sangyo Shimbun (one

of the leading

business newspapers

1983. The English translation of this story was carried in the July 3, 1983

edition of the Topeka

the September 13,

Journal. The Topeka

headline read,
