Molly Maverick is giving up dating, relationships and men in general. She might rethink that when she meets Ezra Baptiste. He's all man when she's used to nothing but boys pretending to be grownups. So he'll need to find a different artist to paint his mural -- and a different graphic designer to help him with his website. He'll need to find someone else to glare at and flirt with and kiss. It can't be Molly - they are too different.

Anderson Jesse cuts her own hair with a Swiss Army knife. She wears big green fisherman's boots. She's the founding (and only) member of NOLAW, the National Organization to Liberate All Weirdos. Emily wears sweaters with faux pearl buttons. She's vice president of the student council. She has a boyfriend. These two girls have nothing in common, except the passionate "private time" they share every Tuesday afternoon. Jesse wishes their relationship could be out in the open, but Emily feels she has too much to lose. When they find themselves on opposite sides of a heated school conflict, they each have to decide what's more important: what you believe in, or the one you love?
